HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 1933

The House met at 12 o'clock noon.

The Chaplain, Rev. James Shera Montgomery, D.D., offered the following prayer:

Thou who madest the heavens and taketh up the stars as little things, whose oceans are as the palm of Thine hand and to whom the isles of the sea are as dust in the balance, Thou art the mighty and the everlasting God. We rejoice this hour because Thou dost bend to the earth, that all suffering humanity may be lifted up and saved. Gracious Heavenly Father, we praise Thee that there is nothing in all the world so patient, nothing so generous, nothing so considerate, nothing so long-suffering as the teachings of Thy only begotten Son. As we live on His levels, so shall we share in His strength, and faintness and failure cannot abound. Intrusted with these offices which we are to discharge, may they be expressed in good conscience, wise principle, and altogether in becoming behavior. Amen.

The Journal of the proceedings of yesterday was read and approved.

Mr. SNELL. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, I presume the gentleman's request includes the filing of minority views also?

Mr. BYRNS. Oh, certainly. I should have stated that in my request.

Mr. SNELL. And such views would be incorporated with the report?

There was no objection.
